

Hola Barcelona! Now seven departures as week to Barcelona

Trafertir are pleased to announce that our direct Barcelona service continues to expand, and we now operate seven scheduled departures per week. This mirrors our Madrid departure schedule also operating daily departures.

This further strengthens our direct departure schedules, serving all major towns throughout Spain, Portugal the Balearic and Canary Islands as well as Gibraltar, Ceuta and Melilla.

This follows the recent expansion of our daily Italian express services covering the whole of mainland Italy as well as Sicily and Sardinia.

As road freight specialists, we understand what's important to you and we appreciate that your cargo must be delivered on time, every time and at an affordable price. Through our strategically placed network of offices, we can provide you with a superior door to door service at extremely competitive prices.

Trafertir are always striving to operate the best and most efficient freight service to and from the UK. We will never stop working hard on your behalf to ensure that your cargo gets to its destination on time and in perfect condition.
